

Contents

Foreword	xi
Introduction	1
1. Why Smart People Give Bad Testimony	7
2. Make the First Answer the Best Answer	21
3. The Danger in Saying Too Little	33
4. The Danger in Avoiding Ambiguous Questions	45
5. The Danger in Not Improving upon the Question	59
6. The Danger in “I Don’t Recall”	73
7. All Witnesses Are Different	85
8. The Better Witness	97
9. Knowing and Preparing Your Witness	109
10. Why Tom Brady Got a Four-Game Suspension and What That Teaches About Witness Preparation	127
11. Yes, No, or Something Else	143
12. Answering Ambiguous Questions	155
13. Deficient Memory and Other Common Testimonial Issues	165
14. Witness Remorse and Testimonial Style	179
15. Documents and Impeachment	193
16. Direct Examination	207
17. Preparing Experts	221
18. Final Words	241
Acknowledgments	247